Re: Conservation Easement.

Dated: January 4, 2006

We already have a Conservation Easement that has gone through the approval process required by the Town of Milan Planning Board and the Town Board. We already have final approval, and it is not conditional on any other Conservation Easement. I saw the Draft Conservation easement that you sent to me weeks ago, and read it. It said it was voluntary. We do not want to enter into another Conservation Easement. I thought that by not responding to you, you would understand that. Therefore, any 'additonal requirements' are moot. Please do not spend any time on this matter or bill such time to our escrow account at the Town of Milan.

Mr. McCulloch,

Several weeks ago, I sent you a draft conservation easement and promised you a list of additional items needed for the Town to close on a conservation easement. My apologies for the delay in getting this list to you. To close on a Conservation Easement, the Town also requires the following:

Per the Town's Fee Schedule, donation to the Town of $100 per easement acre and $200 per non-easement acre.

Title Report

Title Insurance including the Town as an insured

TP 584

Check for Recording Fees

Subordination of any mortgages

Regards,

Janis
